SPRINGHILL SUITES CHEYENNE PROMOTES AWARENESS OF LOCAL SCHOOL ARTS PROGRAMS!

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cheyenne, WY, Friday, May 1, 2015

SpringHill Suites Cheyenne in conjunction with the Cheyenne Chamber of Commerce hosted a local "Art Event" at the newly renovated hotel. The event was coordinated to help raise awareness and help promote their local school's art programs. The event took place at 416 West Fox Farm Road in Cheyenne and featured both local professional artists as well as student artists from South High and Afflerbach Elementary School.

About 250 guests were in attendance at the event and were able to take tours of the newly renovated hotel, enjoy hors' doeuvres and take part in a silent auction featuring pieces from local artists, hotel stay packages and donations from local merchants including Outback Steak House, Big country Raceway and Historic Trolley Tours, was held to raise money for the schools art programs. The silent auction raised a grand total of $250.00.

"We truly appreciate the community's support of student and local artists at this event, we couldn't be more pleased with the turnout." says Judy Fox, General Manager of the SpringHill Suites. Sales Manager of the SpringHill Suites Cheyenne also adds "To borrow a few words from Picasso 'Every child is an artist' and we are so happy to be able to help support them through this event. I want to extend a special thank you to all of our local partners especially the Cheyenne Chamber and Townsquare Media for their help in promoting this event."
